TWO CONCERTS PLANNED TO BENEFIT GROUND ZERO ACTIVITIES

The world's most known and respected Gay music and comedy team, Romonovsky and Phillips, will appear on stage in Colorado Springs at 7:30 pm on Wednesday, March 9 in the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Museum Theatre. Following the event, they will join attendees in a reception in the theatre ante-chamber, where they will chat and sign autographs. Ground Zero, a 501 (c) (3) educationa organization), arranged the performance.

Self described as professional homosexuals, Ron Romanovsky and Paul Phillips bring to the stage a remarkable presence that has attracted the attention of performers and reviewers around the world, including Pete Seeger, The Chicago Tribune, the LA Times, the Sydney Morning Herald, The Advocate, The Lesbian News and the Houston Post, all of whom, and more, have raved about their performances, pointing to their ability to sing and talk about their life experiences in a poignant and humorous manner that interconnects with gays and straights alike.

Said the "Houston Post":

> After years of hearing the straight party line in songs about love and life, it's refreshing to hear a pair of gay men sing about their lives. Romonovsky and Phillips are intelligent, witty and stylish performers.

and the "Los Angeles Lesbian News:

> Romanovsky and Phillips will turn the head and heart of even the most staunch separatist..a definite breath of fresh air from the male side of the world.

Tickets for Romanovsky and Phillips are $12 in advance and $13.50 at the door and include the reception after the concert. They are available at Abaton Books and Ground Zero.

Appearing on Saturday, March 19th, also in the Colorado Springs Fine Arts Center Theatre at 7:30 PM will be Lucy Blue Tremblay. Brought to you jointly by Mavin Productions and Ground Zero, Lucie Blue is an exciting addition to a month already made exciting by the appearance of Romanovsky and Phillips.

Lucie Blue Tremblay has been making magic since she first burst on the music scene in Canada in 1984. She uses the power of her romantic balladry, the charm of her very personal, self-accompanied performance, and her passion for her bilingual heritage to weave a spell. She is a powerful truth-teller whose gift is to share her own honest human experience through her music. Her current tour of the U. S. is in celebration of her third album, "Transformations."

Lucie Blue has appeared in concerts worldwide, from Carnegie Hall to the World's Fair in Spain and with such fellow performers as James Taylor and Randy Newman. Tickets for this performance are $12.00 and may be purchased at Abaton Books and at Ticketmaster outlets.
